

VIGNA PININO - BRUNELLO DI MONTALCINO DOCG

2017

Bright ruby red. Succulent cherries and raspberries on the nose, followed by a hint of rose hips and butterscotch, reverberating with ripe plums and fine savory tones. Remarkably juicy on the palate with polished tannins, accentuated by a lovely fruit expressive core, minimally drying on the finish.

The 2016 Brunello di Montalcino Vigna Pinino is a beautiful introduction to the new cru bottling. Fresh roses, wild strawberries, pine shavings and crushed stone make up its sweetly spiced and floral bouquet. It's silky and enveloping with ample weight, as fleshy cherry-berry fruits find symmetry through zesty acids and salty mineral tones. This comes across as youthfully structured yet not painfully so; instead, you find yourself back at the glass for more as inner violets and hints of licorice resonate. There's already so much pleasure to be found here, but there's no rush either, as the Vigna Pinino has the balance to mature beautifully over the next ten to fifteen years.

Aromas of plums, violets, earth and chocolate orange. Some toffee too. It's medium to-full-bodies with firm, powdery tannins and a rich, flavorful finish. Lingering spice notes. Creamy tannins. Builds on the palate. Better from 2022, but already very nice.

Floreale di rosa, lavanda, incenso, mirra e tabacco, frutto squillante di mandarino e fragola, noce di cola. Preciso, terremotante e affilato il sorso, deve svilupparsi negli anni ma ha rigore e precisione bellissimi.

Menthol, rose, wild-berry and new leather aromas come together in the glass. It's medium bodied and linear, offering tart red cherry, blood orange, espresso and a note of star anise. Close-grained tannins provide support and leave a firm, mouthdrying finish. Drink after 2023-2028.

Lovely peppery, hedgerow fruit, lush tangerine and creamy strawberry aromas framed by coffee notes. Focused on the palate, lively with a spicy long finish.

2015

This vintage brings us many new single-vineyard wines from Montalcino, and this limited release of 1500 bottles (no. corrected from original statement by PININO) is one of them. The Pinino 2015 Brunello di Montalcino Vigna Pinino (packaged in a pretty gold label) opens to a dark garnet color with some browning at the edges. This warm-vintage Sangiovese offers plenty of textural richness that comes off with extra density and black ripeness too. Plummy fruit is followed by dried blackberries, spice, tar and leather. I would suggest a near or medium-term drinking window for this inaugural effort.

Leather, ground clove and red-berry aromas lift out of the glass. The bright palate features red cherry, pomegranate and black pepper alongside fresh acidity and fine-grained tannins.

Another structured Brunello 2015 with firm, chewy tannins that are polished and refined at the same time. They frame the wine nicely with cherry, chocolate and orange-peel undertones. Needs time to open and to resolve some of the tannins.

Concentrated mid ruby. A nose that is a little brooding and not entirely open. Supple, ripe, dark fruit with powdery tannins and completely integrated acidity. Super-accessible and consumer friendly.
